WILEY-BLACKWELL

The International Studies Compendium Project, published in association with the International Studies Association (ISA), comprises:

- The International Studies Encyclopedia (print set)
- International Studies Online

Available electronically or as a 12-volume set in print, this resource is the most comprehensive reference work of its kind for the fields of international studies and international relations. Features include:

- Accessible: Presented in a user-friendly A-Z format
- Comprehensive: 400+ specially-commissioned, peer reviewed essays of up to 10,000 words focusing on the most important topics
- International: Written and edited by a global team of the world's leading scholars and teachers
- Up-to-date: Essays quickly bring readers up-to-date on the nature of the questions asked, past attempts at formulating responses, and the current state of debates
- Wide-ranging: Aimed at students, scholars, and practitioners
- Online: International Studies Online is updated once a year and is enhanced by live links to archives, datasets, cases, pedagogical aids, and other relevant materials.

The project is organized primarily around the different sections representing areas of specialization within the ISA.
